The truth about Alexander | The Independent

The truth about Alexander the Great's three wives. Alexander the Great, to the best of anyone's knowledge, was married three times. In today's thrill-a-minute world of celebrity gossip, that's a relatively unspectacular figure. No, it's not the quantity of marriages that makes Alexander's personal life such a drippingly juicy tabloid snack, but the fact that he was married to all three concurrently, and he got hitched to two of them during the same ceremony.
