Peggy And Me

I couldn't help but silent read Peggy & Me, in Miranda Hart's distinctive voice, does anyone else do that?! There are, as with Ben Fogel's and Monty Don's books, lovely deep meaning, thoughtful moments, as well as lighthearted and funny moments, no giveaways, but if you like dogs and or Miranda Hart, you will like the book for sure.

Remember the difference in case between the pronouns. Both I and me are pronouns that we use to refer to ourselves, but I is nominative, suitable for use as the subject of a sentence or clause, and me is accusative, suitable for use as the object of a verb.. Nominative - The nominative case is used when the pronoun is the subject (e.g. "I rode in the car") or, when speaking very formally ...
